Many of these ancient Sufi masters' writings were only in Arabic and used terms that were complex and unfamiliar to Western people. Such as Taffakur, Tadhakkur, Muraqabah, Muhasabah, Insan Kamel by masters such as Imam Gazalli, Ibn Arabi, Hadrat Abdul Qadir a Gilani all the Saints of the Naqshbandi Sufi Way. This could not be taught without a Master like Shaykh Hisham Kabbani, who began to open these realities in an easily digestible manner for the Western audience. " The Prophet [s] said, "The Sun would Rise from the west " That Sun is the Sun of Sayedena Muhammad [s] and the guidance of The Sultan al-Awliya Muhammad Nazim al-Haqqani [Q]. The greatness of Mawlana Shaykh is that he offers many flavors for all people and teaches us to Teach Khair - goodness and love. Inna Allah la yandhuru ila suwarikum wa lakin yandhuru ila quloobikum, Verily Allah does not look at your pictures but He looks at your hearts.

The goal and purpose of Sufi Meditation Muraqaba Muraqabah / Meditation / Rabita Sharif is to manifest perpetual presence in the reality of the Shaykh. The more one keeps to this vital practice, the more its benefit will manifest in his daily life to the point that he reaches the state of annihilation in the presence of the Shaykh. One must know well that the Shaykh is the bridge between illusion and reality and he remains in this world only for this purpose. The Shaykh is thus a unique rope extended to any who seek freedom for only he may serve as the link between one still mired in this world and the Divine Presence. To be annihilated in the presence and reality of the Shaykh is to be annihilated in reality, in the Presence of the Divine, for this is precisely where he is.

Sheik Nazim Website [Most masters today present the method of meditation to you. But usually they do not base it on Christianity, or Judaism or Islam, so many people think that it is a method which originated within other religions. That is however not the case. Meditation was a method which was already given to the first man, within the first message, to the first Messenger.

What purpose does meditation serve, and how can we reach such a state? It is mentioned in all our Holy Books: the Torah, the Gospels and in the Holy Quran, as a method to reach the Divine Presence. When we come face to face with our Creator, we leave everything else behind. Nothing remains except your soul. Even if I tried to cut you with a sword, you would not be harmed. Nothing can touch you physically in such a state, because your physical body will have entered your spiritual being. Normally it is the opposite: our souls are imprisoned in the physical body. In a perfect state of meditation, your soul covers your physical body and you become a spirit. There was once a Grandsheikh, Sheik Abdul Qadir al Jilani. While he was meditating he kept saying, "I am the truth!" People around him were offended by this utterance and started attacking him with swords, but nothing happened to him. They could not touch him.]

Initially the murid may begin the practice of Sufi Meditation Muraqaba Muraqabah for short intervals of 5 to 15 minutes, and gradually work towards longer sessions extending even for hours at a time. The important point is that one maintain a consistent practice to obtain benefit. It is manifold better and wiser to keep to a small amount daily than to be sporadic in one's discipline and practice. A small amount of effort done consistently will result in tremendous progress in even a short amount of time. Once a Day :

- Make fresh wudu and pray 2 raka'.
- 3x Shahada [Kalimatu Shahadah (3 times): Ashhadu an la ilaha illa-lah, wa ashhadu anna Muhammadan rasulu-lah]
- 100-200x Istighfar [Astaghfirul lahal `Atheem wa atubu ilayh]
- 3x Surah Ikhlas [Qul huwa Allahu ahadun Allahu alssamadu Lam yalid walam yooladu Walam yakun lahu kufuwan ahadun]
- Fatiha (read fatiha)
- Minimum 200x seeking support and presence of Mawlana Shaykh (O): "Madad ya Sayyidi, Madadul-Haq Ya Mawlana Shaykh Nazim Haqqani " Repeating Dhikr

"Hold tight to the rope of God and do not separate." (3:103)

2 Step

- Eyes Shut

ask for Permission to connect his light to your heart and your light to his heart.

Imagine a two way connection and then recite above mantra or awrad

“O ye who believe, be conscious of God and keep the company with those who are truthful.” (9:119)

When someone sits for Meditation Sufi Meditation Muraqaba and closes his eyes, The person doing Meditation focuses his mind on one single point. The point in this case is usually the concept of his spiritual mentor, that is, he focuses all his witnessing abilities concentratively in thinking about his spiritual teacher, in order to get the image of his mentor on the mental screen, as long as he remains in the state of Meditation. The properties, characteristics and potentialities related to an image also transfer on the screen of the mind when the image is formed on the mental screen and the mind perceives them accordingly. For instance, a person is looking at fire. When the image of fire transfers on the mental screen the warmth and heat of the fire is perceived by the mind. A person who is present in a garden enjoys the freshness and coolness of trees and plants present in the garden to create their image on his mental screen. Similarly when image of the spiritual mentor transfers on the screen of mind, the Presented Knowledge which is operative in the spiritual teacher, also transfers with it and the mind of the student gradually assimilates the same.

From Shaykh Adnan Kabbani Teachings: [al-Futuhat al-Haqqaniya, on page 89 if you begin to read from line 10 up to the end of the page and in the last 3 lines Shaykh Adnan said:

“Some of the wise men said...” and then Shaykh Adnan writes “let the Shaykh enter your heart.” Here he said adkhil which in Arabic means “enter” so the full passage is: “Let the Shaykh enter your heart and let him inhabit your heart and do not let the Shaykh leave your heart until you become a knowledgeable person.” [end of quote]

So this picture is depicting the mureed entering the Shaykh into his heart. This is clear, as the book didn't say “make the heart of the Shaykh enter your heart. ” Shaykh Adnan clearly wrote: “let the Shaykh enter your heart.”

Then question then comes: how do you cause the Shaykh to enter in your heart? Wa askinhu feeh • Which “Means inhabit inside it.” That also means “make the Shaykh's house in your heart.” It means, in English: “Make yourself one with your Shaykh and do not let him out until you become a wise man.”

Then Shaykh Adnan said, in line 15: “ you must be fani, annihilated, in your shaykh.” This means you become one with the shaykh. That means no more irada, no will. You are leaving your will and supplanting it with the Will of the Shaykh. This is what Shaykh Adnan is describing exactly in his book al-Futuhat al-Haqqaniya, page 89.

Page 92 line 3 chapter on love 2nd paragraph. Shaykh Adnan stated that ash-Shaykh Sirr as-Saqati said “la tasahu 'l-mahabat” love is not authentic between two until one says to the other “ma anta illa ana -You are me and I am you.” You cannot be in love until you say to the other “ we are one. You are me and I am you. ” So this is what His Eminence Shaykh Adnan has said that is represented in that picture. This picture is a pictorial representation of what Shaykh Adnan described.]

Sufi Meditation Muraqaba, thinking about the spiritual mentor, an attempt to concentrative focus our thoughts on someone, so that his image could recurrently reflect upon the screen of our mind, we are liberated from the limiting senses. The more frequently a thought is displayed upon the mental screen, the more vivid would be the formation of a pattern in the mind. And, this pattern of mind, in terms of spirituality, is called the 'thinking approach'.

When we imagine the spiritual mentor or 'Shaykh', as a matter of eternal law, the knowledge of Elohist Attributes operative in the mentor or Shaykh is reflected upon our mind with frequent repetitions resulting in enlightenment of the mind of the spiritual associate with the lights functional in the mentor and transferred to him. The enlightenment of the heart of the spiritual associate attempts to reaches the level of his mentor. This state, in Sufism, is called 'Affinity' (nisbat). The best and tested way to enjoy the affinity, according to spirituality, is the longing passion of love.

The mind of the mentor keeps on transferring to the spiritual associate according to the passion of love and longing for the mentor flows in him and there comes a time when the lights operative in Shaikh which actually are the reflections of Beatific Visions of God are transferred to the spiritual associate. This enables the spiritual associate to be familiar with the effulgent lights and Beatific Visions. This state, in terms of sufism, is called 'Be one with mentor' (Fana fi Sheikh). The Lights of Shaykh and the refulgent Beatific Visions operative in mentor are not the personal trait of the mentor. Just as the spiritual associate, with devoted attention and concentration, assimilates the knowledge and the traits of his mentor, the mentor has absorbed the knowledge and attributes of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) with devoted attention and concentration of the mind.

Dhikr by negation and affirmation, in the manner of the Naqshbandi Sufi Masters, demands that the seeker close his eyes, close his mouth, clench his teeth, glue his tongue to the roof of his mouth, and hold his breath. He must recite the dhikr through the heart, by negation and affirmation, beginning with the word LA ("No"). He lifts this "No" from under his navel up to his brain. Upon reaching his brain the word "No" brings out the word ILAHA ("god"), moves from the brain to the Right shoulder, and Then to left shoulder where it hits the heart with ILALLAH ("except The Allah"). When that word hits the heart its energy and heat spreads to all the parts of the body. The seeker who has denied all that exists in this world with the words LA ILAHA, affirms with the words ILa ALLAH that all that exists has been annihilated in the Divine Presence.

Conscious Breathing ("Hosh dar dam")

Hosh means "mind." Dar means "in." Dam means "breath." It means, according to Mawlana Abdul Khaliq al-Ghujdawani (q), that "The most important mission for the seeker in this Order is to safeguard his breath, and he who cannot safeguard his breath, it would be said of him, "he lost himself."

Shah Naqshband (q) said, "This Order is built on breath.

So it is a must for everyone to safeguard his breath in the time of his inhalation and exhalation and further, to safeguard his breath in the interval between the inhalation and exhalation."

"Dhikr is flowing in the body of every single living creatures by the necessity of their breath -- even without will -- as a sign of obedience, which is part of their creation. Through their breathing, the sound of the letter "Ha" of the Divine Name Allah is made with every exhalation and inhalation and it is a sign of the Unseen Essence serving to emphasize the Uniqueness of God. Therefore it is necessary to be present with that breathing, in order to realize the Essence of the Creator."

The name 'Allah' which encompasses the ninety-nine Names and Attributes consists of four letters, Alif, Lam, Lam and the same Hah (ALLAH). The people of Sufism say that the absolute unseen Essence of Allah Exalted and Almighty is expressed by the last letter vowelized by the Alif, "Ha." It represents the Absolutely Unseen "He-ness" of the Exalted God

Safeguarding your breath from heedlessness will lead you to complete Presence, and complete Presence will lead you to complete Vision, and complete Vision will lead you to complete Manifestation of Allah's Ninety-Nine Names and Attributes. Allah leads you to the Manifestation of His Ninety-Nine Names and Attributes and all His other Attributes, because it is said, "Allah's Attributes are as numerous as the breaths of human beings."

It must be known by everyone that securing the breath from heedlessness is difficult for seekers. Therefore they must safeguard it by seeking forgiveness (Istighfar) because seeking forgiveness will purify it and sanctify it and prepare the seeker for the Real Manifestation of Allah everywhere .

5 Step

Breathing,
Intake thru Nose-Mantra/Dhikr = "Hu ", imagine
White light entering thru stomach.

Exhale-thru Nose-Mantra/Dhikr= "Hu", imagine Blackness carbon monoxide is all your bad actions being purged from you.

"the wise seeker must safeguard his breath from heedlessness, coming in and going out, thereby keeping his heart always in the Divine Presence; and he must revive his breath with worship and servitude and dispatch this worship to His Lord full of life, for every breath which is inhaled and exhaled with Presence is alive and connected with the Divine Presence. Every breath inhaled and exhaled with heedlessness is dead, disconnected from the Divine Presence."

To climb the mountain, the seeker must journey from the Lower world to the Divine Presence. He must travel from the ego's world of sensual reality to the soul's consciousness of the Divine Reality. Sufi Meditation Muraqaba

To make progress on this journey, the seeker must bring into his heart the picture of his Shaykh (tasawwur), as it is the most powerful means of detaching oneself from the hold of the senses. The Shaykh becomes, in his heart, the mirror of the Absolute Essence. If he is successful, the state of Self-Effacement (ghayba) or "absence" from the world of the senses, appears in him. To the degree that this state increases in him, his attachment to the world of the senses will weaken and disappear, and the station of the Absolute Void of Unsensing Other-than-Allah will dawn on him.

From Shaykh Adnan Kabbani [So this picture is depicting the mureed entering the Shaykh into his heart. This is clear, as the book didn't say "make the heart of the Shaykh enter your heart. " Shaykh Adnan clearly wrote: "let the Shaykh enter your heart."

Then question then comes: how do you cause the Shaykh to enter in your heart? Wa askinhu feeh • ••• •••. Which "Means inhabit inside it." That also means "make the Shaykh's house in your heart." It means, in English: "Make yourself one with your Shaykh and do not let him out until you become a wise man."

The highest degree of this station is called Annihilation (fana'). Thus Shah Naqshband (q)

"The shortest path to our goal, which is Allah, Almighty and Exalted, is for Allah to lift the veil from the Essence of the Face of His Oneness that appears in all creation. He does this with the State of Erasure (ghayba) and Annihilation in His Absolute Oneness (fana'), until His Majestic Essence dawns upon and eliminates consciousness of anything other than Him. This is the end of the Journey of Seeking Allah and the beginning of another Journey."

"At the end of the Journey of Seeking and the State of Attraction comes the State of Self-Effacement and Annihilation.

This is the goal of all mankind as Allah mentioned in the Qur'an: 'I did not create Jinn and Mankind except to worship me.' Worship here means Perfect Knowledge (Ma'rifat)."

From Sheik Nazim Website [On the way of Truth, Tariq-i-Haqq, two methods are being used: Tariqats follow either the Tariq-i-Nafsani, the way on which first of all the Nafs, the ego, is educated in order for the soul to be saved, or they follow the Tariq-i-Ruhani, the way on which first of all the Ruh, the spirit or soul is purified.

The Tariq-i-Nafsani is heavy. Always you have to do the opposite of what your ego wants from you. It is a big fight. The Tariq-i-Ruhani is easy. Sheikh says that on our way you can use the best of everything under the condition that you also do your best in worshipping Allah. On this way first of all the spirit or soul is purified, with no regard to the ego. After the Ruh has found its original attributes the ego, willingly or unwillingly, must follow the Ruh and obey its orders.]

6th Step

To carry the dress of the Shaykh:

3 levels of continuous struggle
Keep His Love {Muhabat} ,
Keep His Presence { Hudur }
Execute His Will upon our selves
{Annihilation or Fana}

We have our love for him, so now wear his light and imagine everything from this point on, with that dress upon us.

This is our life support. You can not eat, drink, pray, dhikr or do anything without imagining the Shaykhs Image upon us.

This Love will mix in with His Presence, and this will open the door of Annihilation in Him.

The more one can keep remembering to be dressed with him the more Annihilation will take place.

Then the guide will Annihilate you in the presence of the Holy Messenger of Allah Sayedena Muhammad {S}. Where again you will keep

- Rasuls Love {Muhabat},
 - Keep His Presence { Hudur}
 - Execute His Will upon our selves {Annihilation or Fana}
- Fana fi Ma Shaykh , RasulAllah, Allah..

Then Shaykh Adnan said, in line 15: " you must be fani, annihilated, in your shaykh." This means you become one with the shaykh. That means no more irada, no will. You are leaving your will and supplanting it with the Will of the Shaykh. This is what Shaykh Adnan is describing exactly in his book al-Futuhat al-Haqqaniya, page 89.

Page 92 line 3 chapter on love 2nd paragraph. Shaykh Adnan stated that ash-Shaykh SIRR as-Saqali said "la tasahu 'I-mahabat" love is not authentic between two until one says to the other "ma anta illa ana -You are me and I am you." You cannot be in love until you say to the other " we are one. You are me and I am you. " So this is what His Eminence Shaykh Adnan has said that is represented in that picture. This picture is a pictorial representation of what Shaykh Adnan described.]

Annihilation Fana

Sufi Meditation Muraqaba In the state of spiritual associate's oneness with the mentor those abilities of the Shaikh become activated in the spiritual associate (salik) because of which the Shaykh enjoys the affinity of the Holy Prophet (PBUH). This stage, in terms of Sufism, is called 'Oneness with the Holy Prophet' (Fana fir Rasul). It is the holy statement of the Holy Prophet (PBUH), "I am a human being just like you but I receive revelation'. When this statement is closely examined, it is found that the exaltation of the Last Prophet is that he received Revelations from God, Almighty which reflects the Divine Knowledge (Ilm-e-Iadduni); the knowledge directly inspired by God, the Beatific Visions of God and the refulgent Lights upon the blessed Heart of Holy Prophet.

In the state of 'Oneness with the Holy Prophet' a spiritual associate because of his passion, longing and love gradually, step by step, assimilates and cognizes the knowledge of the Holy Prophet. Then comes that auspicious moment when the knowledge and learning is transferred to him according to his capacity from the Holy Prophet (PBUH).

The spiritual associate absorbs in the traits of the Holy Prophet (PBUH) according to his aptitude, ability and capacity and because of his affinity with the Holy Prophet and his support he manages to reach that state when he had acknowledged the Lordship of God, the Lord of the worlds saying, 'Yes, indeed you are our Lord God!. This affinity, in Sufism, is called Annihilation in Allah Love' (Fana fi-lah) or simply 'oneness' (wahidayia). After that, if one is bestowed with ability one explores those areas about which narration has no words to explain them because of their delicacy and subtleness.

7th Step

To Be, a thing non-existent, crystal clear vessel for whomever wishes to fill your being from Allah's Divine Kingdom.

In the state of 'Oneness with the Holy Prophet' a spiritual associate because of his passion, longing and love gradually, step by step, assimilates and cognizes the knowledge of the Holy Prophet.
